

Healthcare Apprenticeships

Shadowing
colleagues

Classroom or taught sessions

Industry or manufacturing visits

Visiting other departments

Mentoring

Role play

Independent Research

Conferences

In-house training

Off the job - 6 hrs per week
What counts?

Research

Team training

E-Portfolio

Coaching Sessions

Written assignments

Simulation exercises

Workshops

One to ones

Departmental rotation

Visits to suppliers

Reflective journal

An average of 6 hours per week of an apprenticeship must be off-the-job. However this doesn't mean all of the time is spent in the classroom or at college....

Try some of these creative ways to enhance your apprentice's learning experience