

APPRENTICESHIP STANDARDS IN LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

Career progression is not linear. You can step in or out at any point depending on your experience, career goals. You must check that you meet the entry requirements for the apprenticeship you select.

Often people will already be a support worker, working in a corporate function or hold professional registration and be working as a clinician before doing one of these apprenticeships.

You may also be interested in HR and people management, business or other corporate functions, research, enhanced clinical practice, advanced clinical practice, mentoring or teaching apprenticeships.

- ✔ An apprenticeship combines practical training in a job with study
- ✔ Apprentices are employed and receive a salary
- ✔ Full-time apprentices are entitled to a minimum of 6 hours per week 'off the job' training time as part of their job.*
- ✔ If not already achieved apprentices will undertake maths and English qualifications
- ✔ A qualification taken during an apprenticeship is equal to the same qualification taken elsewhere
- ✔ Depending on the apprenticeship, upon successful completion, apprentices may be eligible to apply for professional registration

*The off the job minimum requirement for a part-time apprentice remains unchanged at 20% of their normal working hours. The new 'off the job' hours policy change only applies to new starts from 1 August 2022.
